

Directions: After reading the background information and examining the source, answer the questions below.

Background Information: The Battle of the Plains of Abraham was fought between the British and French forces on September 13, 1759, during the Seven Years' War. Led by General Wolfe, the British defeated French forces on the day, marking an important turning point in the battle for control of North America.

Title: The Death of General Wolfe

Artist: Benjamin West

Date: 1770

Continued on Back

Statement: The painting “The Death of General Wolfe” is useful primary source evidence for historians researching to understand the circumstances of the death of General Wolfe during the Battle of the Plains of Abraham.

Short Answer Response: Do you agree or disagree with the statement above?

“The Death of General Wolfe” is useful / not useful [Circle One] because...