

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

TO THE PAST

Directions: After reading the background information and examining the source, answer the questions below.

Background Information: In 1864, representatives of the British North American colonies met in Charlottetown, PEI to discuss the potential of colonial union. The meetings were held at Province House, home of the PEI legislative assembly and judiciary.

Featured Source:

Title: The Fathers of Confederation

Artist: Rex Woods

Date: 1968

Statement: The painting “The Fathers of Confederation” is useful primary source evidence for historians studying the negotiations in Charlottetown PEI prior to Confederation.

Short Answer Response: Do you agree or disagree with the statement above?

The Fathers of Confederation” is useful / not useful [Circle One] because...